MLG ATTORNEYS AT LAW PROMOTES TRAVIS EAGAN TO PARTNER

Costa Mesa, California (June 8, 2023) – Leading automotive defect firm MLG Attorneys at Law today announced the promotion of Travis Eagan to litigation partner. Based in the firm's Southern California headquarters, Eagan handles a variety of cases, including automotive products liability and personal injury. In his tenure, Eagan has litigated cases against nearly every automotive manufacturer in the world, and has been involved in nation-wide class actions. Among his notable victories is a defamation case that resulted in a $9.9 million trial verdict.

In the upcoming year, Eagan is scheduled to take on litigation involving car manufacturers such as FCA, Nissan, Kia, Hyundai, Lexus, and Toyota. "We are incredibly proud to announce Travis's elevation to the role of partner at our firm," said MLG Attorneys at Law principal Jonathan Michaels. "In his time with us, Travis has demonstrated not only a deep understanding of the law but also an unwavering commitment to our clients. His promotion is a testament to the significant value he brings to our team and our clients."
